

EMILIA (Othello 4.3):

But I do think it is their husbands' faults
If wives do fall: say that they slack their duties
And pour our treasures into foreign laps
Or else break out in peevish jealousies
Throwing restraint upon us: or say they strike us
Or scant our former having in despite
Why we have galls: and though we have some grace
Yet have we some revenge: Let husbands know
Their wives have sense like them: they see and smell
And have their palates both for sweet and sour:
As husbands have: What is it that they do
When they change us for others: Is it sport?
